

Dear Families,

In our continued efforts to keep our families and staff safe, Renaissance, airing on the side of caution, has decided to cancel the student led conference scheduled for Thursday, March 26th. Teachers will schedule phone conferences with families.

Teachers will be emailing parents to schedule a time for a phone conference between, March 30 - April 3.

Please be on the lookout for an email from your child's teacher(s). If you have any question on conferences, please email the teacher or school director.

Lower School (K1 – Grade 2) Kendra Lueken at klueken@brcps.school

Upper School (Grade 3 – Grade 6) Farah Assiraj at fassiraj@brcps.school

Due to the precautionary measures being taken in the wake of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and recommendations by public officials not to convene large groups of people, Boston Renaissance will cancel the following events:

- Saturday March 21st Parent Workshops on Internet Safety and How to Talk to Kids About Sex
- Wednesday, March 25th Parent Meeting
- Friday, March 27th Family Movie Night

BRCPS does not want to alarm our families but rather be sensitive to what is happening at this time. The Renaissance will continue to review information from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and Centers for Disease Control as they monitor the situation closely. We will continue to share information with you as it is share with the school.
